The tour will start in the port of Trapani where you will meet our skipper who will take you to explore Favignana and Levanzo;

Stop in front of the island of Formica to present the Egadi archipelago

Along the way you can admire an alternation of caves and coves until you reach one of the most famous and symbolic places of this area: Cala Rossa in Favignana. Stops planned at Cala Azzurra, Bue Marino and the Lovers' Cave. You will be fascinated by the sea, by its colors with a thousand shades of blue and by the landscape that will surround you.

Stop in the village for lunch (free, not included in the fee)

In the afternoon, before returning to the port of Trapani, you will also head to Levanzo, the smallest of the Egadi Islands for the last swim and snorkeling.
Toast to arrive, see you and return to Trapani
